FFL89 Super Bowl rules. starting in 2015 season / 2016 Super Bowl

Lineup note:

A submitted lineup can not be viewed by other owners until after the kickoff of the first game of the week.

League ID for 2020 Super Bowl:

How to find league ID <https://www81.myfantasyleague.com/2019/home/53998#0>

Players and Lineups/Roster: FanDuel/DraftKings type of lineups. The players used will be from the teams playing in the playoffs from the Wild Card game to the Super Bowl. Most total points will determine the winners, the first three teams by total points scored will be paid out. Weekly lineups, 11 players total, will consist of: 1 QB, 2 RB's, 3 WR's, 1 TE, 1 K, 1 Def, 1 ST and 1 flex player (RB,WR or TE). Defense and Special teams can be split. You must start 11 players each week. All week 18 starting players should be playing in week 18 of the playoff games. No player dollar values will be used as in Fan Duel or double points for players in a lineup for consecutive weeks as in the NFL. Also no set amount of lineup changes as with CBS. A lineup is good for the week. Once the first game roster deadline passes, no changes can be made until the following week. This will be close to the daily games only it's weekly in our league.

Lineups due by and how to submit: Lineups will be submitted on the MFL site or FFL89 site (Super Bowl page). They can also be submitted to the SB Coordinator by email, text message or on MyFantasyLeague.com The MFL (owner input) should be the first choices. The lineup form can be sent by computer or cell phone. Once the lineup form is submitted, you will receive a confirmation from IPage & FFL89 that it was successfully sent. Last is email the SB coordinator. Changes can be made anytime before the 1 hour limit. The latest legal lineup, time stamped, will be used if more than 1 is submitted. (per the IPage time stamp). Lineups will be shown as received on the web site, FFL89 page (FFL89 Home page). Lineups are due 1 hour before the first game of the week. No changes after the deadline for that week. Each week a lineup should be submitted. If one is not, the previous lineup will be used and count towards the point total. Late or no lineup in week 1 will score zero points. No changes can be made after the 1 hour game time rule. Incorrect lineups will score 0 points. The league can not override the lineup deadline rule. Lineups will be seen by the league for all teams at game time of the first game of the week.

Lineup submission:

1. MyFantasyLeague.com owner input
2. Lineup form - click here
3. email / text SB co-ordinator (do not send the lineup to anyone else in the league. Only the co-ordinator. Anyone else it will not count)

Lineup penalties: We will no longer use the -20 point penalty. for rosters other than week 1, if late or no lineup, will score zero points, and late weeks 2 - 4 the previous lineup used. If no week 1 lineup, your team will again score 0 points.

Scoring and standings: Scoring will be the same as the regular season. Stats will be posted in the Super Bowl site on MFL site and FFL89.com. The site will have lineups, player scoring and standings. All weeks, 18-21 will be on the sites. Point totals will become official Thursday, 12pm Point Protest: Any protest or questions should be submitted before the following Thursday, by 12pm. After this time they will become official and can not be changed without league approval. (rules committee). Point scoring will be based on the regular season setup. Money will be paid out as listed (top 3 teams), in the rule book and the top point total team will receive a Super Bowl trophy.

Super Bowl Coordinator: Will be a member of the officers, elected the same as the rest of the officers. Handle all the Super Bowl setup on MFL site for, rosters, scoring and post scores on the internet. The coordinator will be in charge of imposing any penalties. (no lineup, incorrect or late lineup). Week 1, Will score 0 points. Week 2-4 will use the previous lineup. If lineups are incorrect or late lineup, 0 points again

WHAT TEAM HAS PLAYED A SUPER BOWL IN THEIR HOME STADIUM ?

SUPER BOWL FACTS

Lamar Hunt, owner of the AFL's Kansas City Chiefs, first used the term "Super Bowl"[10] to refer to the NFL-AFL championship game in the merger meetings. Hunt later said the name was likely in his head because his children had been playing with a Super Ball toy; a vintage example of the ball is on display at the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. In a July 25, 1966, letter to NFL commissioner Pete Rozelle, Hunt wrote, "I have kiddingly called it the 'Super Bowl,' which obviously can be improved upon."

"Super Bowl" became official beginning with the third annual game. Roman numerals were first affixed for the fifth edition, in January 1971. (orig. Lamar Hunt)

Tailgating – In years past, tailgating was not permitted at any of the On Location parking lots as well as any NFL sanctioned lot at the stadium. You could bring food and beverages, but traditional tailgating items like grills and tents are not permitted. If anything changes on that we will be sure to update the post.

Chuck Howley is the only MVP who's team lost the Super Bowl. SB V

Only once - SB XII CO-MVP's Harvey Martin - Randy White

How many times has the Super Bowl been played in Florida ?

Miami Orange Bowl	Miami, Florida	5	1968, 1969, 1971, 1976, 1979

Another season is gone and playoffs begin.

Thanks again to all the owners
for another great season,
our 31st.

Now, we begin our 30th
Super Bowl.

The seasons seem to be going faster every year and that's because of the owners.

Thanks to the best league around. Rick
